Discussion Questions

1. What stands out to you about the way the crowd was pressing into Jesus?
2. Why do you think the crowd was so hungry to hear Jesus speak? How does that translate in your life personally and corporately?
3. How does this quote by J.C. RYLE challenge and encourage?

"We can NOT wait for every obstacle to be removed before we put our hand to the plough. What then are we to do? Shall we sit still and do nothing? God forbid! If we can not do all that we WANT, let us do all that we CAN."

4. Peter was humbled where he felt most confident and competent when it came to fishing. Like Peter, how do we get to this place where we are confident and competent without needing the Lord?
5. Like Peter, is there a place or area in your life where you feel most confident and competent that causes you to be dependent upon self more so than the Lord?
